"Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord. Alleluia!"

A very Holy and grace-filled Easter to all.

Easter is the time to truly celebrate Jesus' Resurrection; His living among us. Like those who first saw the Risen Christ and lived a life with Christ, we are inspired to live out our everyday life with Christ's presence.

This mystery cannot be lived in isolation. It requires the bonds of the community to support us and to challenge us. I am greatly blessed to have you all as part of my life here at St Peter the Apostle Parish. Whether we gather at Church or outside the Church, I am fully inspired by your generosity and your participation; I experience the presence of Christ in our midst.

My wish is that we make our parish a home to experience Christ for everyone who is part of our loving community, and all those who visit our parish. Let us continue to build our community greater! Thank you all from the depth of my heart.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all our generous parishioners who are continually giving of their time, talents and service to our Parish.

God bless you all.

In Christ, Fr Jeronimo Flamenco.

GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA (Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Easter is the season of mystagogical catechesis, that instruction that unpacks the hidden mystery of the experience of the sacraments of initiation received or renewed at Easter. The readings of each Sunday concentrate on some aspect of this mystery. The central theme of this Sunday is newness of life in Christ. This newness is not without its historical context. It burst forth first in the resurrection of Christ, and then through the preaching of the first Christians.

The readings testify that if we die with Christ, we will appear with him in glory; if we cast out the old yeast, we will be fresh dough. And when this wondrous transformation takes place, everything is new; everything is fresh. To what newness are we called? To what must we die in order to rise transformed? What old yeast of corruption must be cast out in order that we might be fresh dough?

At Easter we renew our baptismal vows. What is it that we really renounce? Ours is a world of violence, of prejudice, of indifference. Too often we harbour feelings of anger and resentment, of selfishness and disdain. Easter proclaims that Christ has died and has risen; with him we die to all of the wickedness in our lives and in our world, and we set our hearts on higher things, on sincerity and on truth.

THIS EASTER, Jeff Cavins will be coming to Perth as part of the 2019 Evangelisation Australia Easter Mission. Jeff is no stranger to most of us, as almost every parish has run one of his famous Bible Timeline studies at one point or another. This is a very unique opportunity to hear him speak live. It is also a chance to engage with others from the parish as well as from the archdiocese, and of course most importantly deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. The events will take place over 2 days, across 3 parishes, so please check venues and times carefully.

Date: 26 & 27 April

Time: Friday 5.30pm-9.30pm

Saturday 9.30am-12.00noon & 3.00-5.00pm

Next weekend's (27/28 April) readings are for 2 Sunday of Easter Year C

1st Reading: Acts 5: 12-16

2nd Reading: Apocalypse 1: 9-13, 17-19

Gospel: John 20: 19-31

First Reading: Acts 10: 34, 37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

This is the day
the Lord hath made Rejoice!
and be glad in it.
Psalm 118:24

Responsorial Psalm: 117: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R: This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.
Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.' R.
2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.
I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R.
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. R.

Second Reading: Colossians 3: 1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel: John 20: 1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
