ST PETER'S ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FOOD FETE

Combined with the Grandparents 10.00am Mass on Sunday, 30 June

This is our parish community's major fundraising/community gathering where as a parish we can get to know each other a little better, and where we can enjoy cooking and eating foods prepared by you, our community.

There are volunteer slips at the back of the church for those who wish to cook a cultural dish of their own. These can be sampled on the day or taken away to enjoy later. If you are providing food, please contact Hilda Tansley—0433 059 088—with details. There will also be a marquee on the lawn area adjacent to the hall with tables and chairs for your convenience.

Raffle tickets will be sold leading up to and on the day, with winners being drawn on Sunday, 30 June.

GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA (Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Today we concentrate on the different ways that the witness of the community of faith manifests the Lord – the apostolic witness of leadership and service that is accomplished by the various ministries within the church. While today's gospel singles out Peter as a leader within the community, in no way does this mean that such providential care for the church is the sole responsibility of authorised leaders. Rather, it is the responsibility of all the baptised.

In their teaching and preaching, the apostles moved from one understanding of God's presence and activity in the midst of the people to another. This new understanding had the death and resurrection of Jesus at its core. The light of the resurrection illumined their former religious convictions and aspirations, and they were undeterred in their commitment to spread this good news, this new word, this transforming light.

A martyr is a witness, one who is so committed, that that person is willing to suffer any consequence, even death, in order to be faithful. The apostles rejoiced that they had been found worthy of ill-treatment for the sake of the name of Jesus. The Lamb who is exalted is the one who was slain, and Peter is told that, like his master, he will pay for his commitment with his life. Even the psalm alludes to the suffering that must be endured by those who have chosen to be faithful. This kind of steadfastness has always been a persuasive witness.

Mother Mary Procession—Change of Date

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the procession to celebrate Our Lady in the month of May after the 6.00pm Mass on Saturday, 11 May, has been postponed to May 18th.

We are asking for donations of white roses/flowers to adorn the float which can be delivered to the church before 10am on 17 May.

We also require volunteers to carry the float. Kindly register your interest on the sheets at the back of the church.

The Emmanuel Centre for People with Disabilities and their families are offering two parishioners the opportunity to take part in a Mental Health First Aid course.

The first course will be held over 2 Saturdays from 9am-4pm at Emmanuel Centre in late June. A second course will be available in August. Attendance on both days is mandatory.

The application form is available from the parish office and must be submitted by Friday, 7 June to Emmanuel Centre, 25 Windsor St, Perth.

Further to Archbishop Costelloe's DVD last weekend regarding the document the Care for Life program that encourages people to write to their MP's to oppose the introduction of Assisted Suicide legislation, we have placed copies of this document at the back of the church.

Please take one and follow the steps contained on this sheet for your input into this very important debate which will take place shortly.

Baptism

We welcomed Ashton Whitehead to God's family last week.

Congratulations to Ashton and his family.

Thank you to those who continue to place used stamps in the container at the back of the church.

The Rotary Club use them as a fund raiser for their work overseas.

Good Neighbours Outing to the Seminary

An invitation is extended to all parishioners to join with the Volunteers of the Good Neighbour Group for an outing to St Charles' Seminary in Guildford on Friday, 10 May. Fr Jeronimo will celebrate Mass there at 10am followed by morning tea.

We would appreciate if anyone could also assist with transport. There are lists at the back of the church to include your names re attendance or being able to assist with transport. We would be leaving at 9.30am.

It is not necessary to add your name to the lists if you are already on the Good Neighbours lists you will be contacted as normal for monthly activities.

PLEASE NOTE: There will be no 9am Mass celebrated in St Peter's on this date.

Please advise if able to attend by Sunday, 5 May. Any queries please ring Marie—9275 6307 or Sue—9272 7181.

Fr Jeronimo also requests if parishioners could donate small unused items as gifts for women to be distributed at this outing on May 10th, for example hand creams, chocolates etc.

They can be left at the parish office during office hours.

Parish meetings next week

Tues 7 May SVDP at 7.30pm in 98 Wood St

Wed 8 May Penance W/shop at 5pm in the hall

Next weekend's (11/12 May) readings are for 4 Sun of Easter Year C

1st Reading: Acts 13: 14, 43-52

2nd Reading: Apocalypse 7: 9, 14-17

Gospel: John 10: 27-30

First Reading: Acts 5: 27-32, 40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 29: 2, 4-6, 11-13

- R. I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.
1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. R.
2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. R.
3. The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. R.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 5: 11-14

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation – everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 21: 1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
