ST PETER'S ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FOOD FETE

To be combined with the Grandparents 10.00am Mass on Sunday, 30 June

This is our parish community's major fundraising/community gathering where as a parish we can get to know each other a little better, and where we can enjoy cooking and eating foods prepared by you, our community.

There are volunteer slips at the back of the church for those who wish to cook a cultural dish of their own. These can be sampled on the day or taken away to enjoy later. If you are providing food, please contact Hilda Tansley—0433 059 088—with details. There will also be a marquee on the lawn area adjacent to the hall with tables and chairs for your convenience.

Raffle tickets will be sold leading up to and on the day, with winners being drawn on Sunday, 30 June.

GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA (Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Everything is new! There is a new law of love, a new heaven and earth that is established in the church, a new depth of communion there, and a new glory of God that shines forth from its members.

The new commandment that Jesus announces is more than tolerance or mutual respect. It requires self-sacrificing love. Perhaps the greatest obstacle to this love is the diversity discussed last Sunday. It is hard enough to love those who are like us; how can we possibly love those who are different? And how can we love those who do not love us? It is no wonder that the commandment is called new. It calls for something completely different.

The new commandment is the law of the new heaven and the new earth that are established in the new Jerusalem. Standards are entirely different there. The greater ones serve; the meek possess the earth; happy are the poor; woe to those who laugh. This is clearly a city that comes down from heaven, not one made by human hands. It is a city that embraces all who come to it. God dwells in the midst of this city, in the heart of this people. God dwells with them and they dwell with God.

Through this new love, this new heaven and new earth, this new depth of communion, the glory of God is manifested in a new way. The eschatological future is anticipated in the present. The age of fulfilment has dawned.

On Sunday, 26th May, following the 8.30am and 10am mass, we will be holding a Sausage sizzle fundraiser in support of The Black Dog Institute at St Peter's Parish Hall. The Black Dog institute is a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to helping us live mentally healthier lives through efforts in research, clinical services and mental health programs.

All proceeds will help contribute to delivering a mental health program in high schools reaching up to 160 young people per school and families throughout Australia. Information cards will also be provided on how to help the people we care about going through a tough time.

Please come down and say hello, we would love to see you there!

For any further questions please contact Maria on 0414 870 361.

Can you help us ?

As we prepare the liturgical celebration for Confirmation on 8th/9th June, we need a set of old fashioned scales (the kind our grandparents used with weights) for our display. We also want a heavy 3 ply rope eg tow rope/nautical rope. This only needs to be a short length for a Yr 6 child to carry.

If you can help us with a loan or donation of either item, we would be most grateful. We would need them from late May until after Confirmation.

Please call Chris 0422 984 812 if you can help.

Thank You!

Grateful thanks to all the kind parishioners who recently donated gifts for the mothers in our parish.

The Good Neighbours outing to St Charles' Seminary was very successful and the gifts were much appreciated.

Feast Day this week.....

Friday, 24 May—Our Lady, Help of Christians

The Virgin Mary has often been invoked in times of religious strife under the title of Help of Christians. In thanksgiving for the release of Pope Pius VII from captivity in 1814, the feast was established the following year on the anniversary of his restoration.

The first Australian provincial synod held in Sydney in 1844 placed the Church in Australia under Mary's patronage invoked by the title Help of Christians.

The solemn feast is an occasion to seek Mary's help and protection for our Church and nation.

22 May Confirmation w/shop in hall at 7pm

Next weekend's (25/26May) readings are for 6 Sun of Easter Year C

1st Reading: Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29

2nd Reading: Apocalypse 21:10-14, 22-23

Gospel: John 14: 23-29

First Reading: Acts 14: 21-27

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 144: 8-13

R: I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

1. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.
2. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign. R.
3. Yours is an everlasting kingdom; your rule lasts from age to age. R.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21: 1-5

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.'

Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 13: 34

Alleluia, alleluia. I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you! Alleluia!

Gospel: John 13: 31-35

When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
