ST PETER'S ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FOOD FETE
To be combined with the Grandparents 10.00am Mass on Sunday, 30 June

This is our parish community's major fundraising/community gathering where as a parish we can get to know each other a little better, and where we can enjoy cooking and eating foods prepared by you, our community.

There are volunteer slips at the back of the church for those who wish to cook a cultural dish of their own. These can be sampled on the day or taken away to enjoy later. If you are providing food, please contact Hilda Tansley—0433 059 088—with details. There will also be a marquee on the lawn area adjacent to the hall with tables and chairs for your convenience.

Raffle tickets will be sold leading up to and on the day, with winners being drawn on Sunday, 30 June.

GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA (Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

The new city of God is built on the foundation of the apostles, but on its gates are inscribed the names of the tribes of Israel. These names represent the openness to all nations, races, peoples and tongues. The resurrection of Jesus has radically transformed the way we live together and the way we live with God.

What must we do to be saved? The question put to Jesus centuries ago is still asked today, and the answer is still the same. We must believe and we must love God and love one another. We will be recognised as resurrection people by our active faith and by our unselfish love, not by an exterior mark, regardless of how sacred. This change in requirements for membership does not diminish the rigour of our religious obligations. Rather, it suggests that we may always have to reinterpret the law, for what is appropriate at one time and in one place may be inappropriate in another. With the early Christians, we will need the guidance of the Holy Spirit in this very delicate process. This is why the departing Jesus assures us that the Spirit will come to us to teach us all things.

The final gift that Jesus promises to give is his own peace, a peace that he has won by overcoming sin and death. This peace issues from the union that Jesus enjoys with God, a union which we are now invited to share.

Condolences

The parish offers prayers and sympathy to Glenn Abreu and family on the recent death of his brother, Kelvin.

This Sunday, 26th May, following the 8.30am and 10am mass, there will be a Sausage sizzle fundraiser in support of The Black Dog Institute at St Peter's Parish Hall.

All proceeds will help contribute to delivering a mental health program in high schools reaching up to 160 young people per school and families throughout Australia. Information cards will also be provided on how to help the people we care about going through a tough time.

Please come down and say hello, we would love to see you there!

Thank you to everyone who donated white roses for our Candlelight procession for our Mother Mary last Saturday night after the 6pm Mass.

Thanks also to those who assisted in making our Blessed Mother look so beautiful and to all who stayed and joined in the procession.

Invitation

The Holy Spirit choir will be singing at the Saturday Vigil Mass on 1 June, and you are invited to join them for supper in the hall after. Please bring a plate to share.

Adapted Inclusive Liturgy

All are invited to this special celebration of the Feast of the Ascension with our friends of Personal Advocacy on Sunday, 2 June at the 10am Mass.

Please join us afterwards for tea/coffee in the hall.

Little Sisters of the Poor Appeal

On the weekend of 1/2 June the Little Sisters of the Poor will be seeking your financial support to help assist the less fortunate in our community.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

Envelopes for the year commencing 1 July 2019 are now being prepared.

The income from Planned Giving Envelopes is the only assured financial income of the parish. The parish is dependent on this income for the running costs, repairs and improvements of the church, presbytery, hall and parish centre.

Parishioners who are not at present using envelopes are asked to consider requesting a set by completing a form available at the back of the church and placing it in the collection plate.

For existing and new givers who would like to contribute electronically, please take one of the yellow cards at the back of the church, fill in the details and mark it 'DIRECT DEBIT'. These can be placed in the second collection plate at any of the weekend Masses, and the office will contact you shortly with the bank details.

Enquiries can also be made to the parish office during office hours.

Holy Hour

The World Apostolate of Fatima invite all to a Holy Hour on Sunday, 16 June at 3pm in St Peter's church. It will commence with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by scripture reflection, prayers, hymns, rosary, and concludes with Benediction. There will also be the Virgin statue of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Grateful thanks are offered to Glenn Abreu for his generous contribution of time as Sacristan at St Peter's. It was very much appreciated.

Opposition to WA Euthanasia Bill

This Bill will be introduced into the WA Parliament in a few months. A letter writing workshop is to be held at the Embleton Parish Hall, 8 Burnett St, Embleton at 7.30pm on Tuesday, 28 May.

At this workshop you will have the opportunity to write letters to your local member and to members of Legislative Council covering your locality. All writing resources and stamps will be provided. Supper will also be available. If you can attend this workshop, please put your name and contact details on the sheet at the back of the church.

magazine.

Parish meetings next week

Liturgy Min. Thurs, 30 May at 7.30pm in parish house

Next weekend's (1/2 June) readings are for the Ascension of the Lord Year C

1st Reading: Acts 1: 1-11

2nd Reading: Ephesians 1: 17-23

Gospel: Luke 24:46-53

First Reading: Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, 'Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved.' This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders.

Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them:

'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us, and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 66: 2-3, 5-6, 8

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

- O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. R.
- Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples, you guide the nations on earth. R.
- Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him. R.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21: 10-14, 22-23

In the spirit, the angel took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 14: 23

Alleluia, alleluia. All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 14: 23-29

Jesus said to his disciples:
'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
