GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA (Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Today we consider some of the personal difficulties we might have to face as disciples. First, there is no part-time discipleship. Our commitment must be wholehearted and complete. We must have a willing attitude that frees us interiorly from all other concerns so that we might be able to follow Christ regardless of our state in life or our occupation. This attitude of commitment comes not merely from our own generosity of heart but from our having been transformed into Christ through faith and baptism.

We may face conflicts when our various allegiances seem to clash. We may have family responsibilities. There are children to raise, elderly parents or infirm relatives to care for. What does discipleship require of us? We all must earn a living. Are we expected to leave our employment to follow Jesus? And if so, what then will we do? All disciples must face the interior struggle caused by the conflict of legitimate responsibilities.

The freedom of which Paul speaks comes with genuine love. If, out of love, we can negotiate successfully these conflicts caused by competing responsibilities, without compromising our total commitment to Christ, we will find a new kind of freedom. This is the freedom that enables us to be faithful to both sets of responsibilities according to the proper priority. We will see that commitment to Christ is primary and the circumstances of our lives with the accompanying responsibilities set the parameters within which we live out our commitment. It is not in opposition with these responsibilities or despite them, but by means of or through them that we live out our discipleship.

Feast Day this week.....

Wed 3 July—St Thomas—Thomas, called the 'Twin' was one of the twelve chosen by Jesus. Remembered for his initial disbelief in the resurrection and his subsequent proclamation of faith upon seeing the resurrected Christ. An early tradition venerates him as the Apostle of India.

Sunday, 30 June in the parish hall

9.30am-12.30pm

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR ANNUAL PARISH EVENT THIS WEEKEND BY PURCHASING THE WONDERFUL CULINARY DELIGHTS PREPARED BY THE MANY COOKS IN THE PARISH.

Don't forget the raffle will be drawn at 12pm**

Welcome to all grandparents at the 10am Mass on Sunday, joining them will be St Peter's School choir, as well as students doing Readings etc.

Children are invited to take a 'leaf' at the back of the church and put their names on it. Fr Jeronimo will then invite them to hang their leaf on our parish family tree which you will see as you enter the church.

Condolences

Prayers and sympathy are offered to the family of Maria Mangini, a long time member of our parish, who died recently.

The Rosary and her funeral were held last week.

The Holy Spirit choir will be singing at the Vigil Mass on 6 July and invite all to join them for supper in the hall after Mass.

The Bedford Conference of St Vincent de Paul will have a Commissioning Ceremony for members at the 10am Mass on Sunday, 7 July.

Everyone is invited to join them for morning tea afterwards in the Hall.

Please note that the parish office will be open next week on Tuesday (as usual) and Wednesday, 3 July instead of Thursday, 4 July.

Hall Key

Would all parish groups who use the hall please note that access can now will only be gained by ensuring that bookings need to be made by 4pm Thursday so that a key can be left in the locked box in the hall foyer.

The locks have been changed which means that old keys will no longer work.

Do you know anyone who might be interested in becoming a Catholic?

Tell them about our next parish RCIA process which will begin in August. RCIA is short for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, which is the process by which people become full members of our community. During the process the candidates learn about the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church.

Anyone who would like more information should contact Chris deSilva—0459 236 110.

29 June—Feast of Sts Peter & Paul

Patron Saints of our Parish

Died as martyrs at Rome under Nero, between 64-67. This pre-eminent feast day of the city of Rome has been observed on this date since the mid-third century. It commemorates the martyrdoms of Peter the 'chief of the apostles' and Paul the 'apostle to the Gentiles'. Remembered for their faith, their courage, and their leadership during the difficult days of the birth of the church.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19: 16, 19-21

The Lord said to Elijah: 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.'

Leaving there, Elijah came on Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 15: 1-2, 5, 7-11

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

1. Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.
I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.'
O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize. R.
2. I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.
3. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.
4. You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness forever. R.

Second Reading: Galatians 5: 1, 13-18

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community.

Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: 1 Samuel 3: 9; John 6: 68

Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 9: 51-62

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
