GOSPEL REFLECTION by Greg Sunter

(Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

How much faith does one have to have? How much faith is enough? How is it possible to measure one person's faith against another?

When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, what exactly were they asking of him? These fishermen and nobodies chosen as disciples by Jesus must surely have had moments of realisation that they were not the sorts of young men normally chosen by Rabbis to be disciples. They must have looked around at the disciples of other teachers and seen that, by comparison, they weren't really in the same league. So they ask Jesus to increase their faith. What they're saying is: make us more like the sorts of people we think we should be.

Jesus counters their request by telling them that if they had faith the size of a tiny mustard seed they could accomplish great things. It's not a matter of how much faith one has but what they do with it. How much faith does it take to do great things? Jesus says that it only takes the tiniest scrap of faith.

Jesus follows up this statement by pointing out to the disciples that no matter how small the amount of faith, it carries with it a responsibility and duty to act upon it. One shouldn't be looking for acclaim and special treatment when one acts out of faith as that is simply what is expected. The gift of faith carries with it a duty to live that faith and act upon it.

Feast Days this week.....

Mon 7 Oct—Our Lady of the Rosary

This was established in 1573 as a memorial of the Virgin Mary who is honoured in the rosary, a form of prayer combining the salutation of the angel with meditation on the saving mysteries of Christ.

Originally the rosary was the laity's "psalter", the Hail Marys replacing the 150 psalms.

Parish Finance Update

2nd Collection including Planned
Giving envelopes (28/29 Sept)

	$2,020.55
Family Fast (Sept)	$ 145.40
Direct Debit (Aug)	$ 744.00

At each of the Masses this weekend there will be a guest speaker, Maggie Box, who will be informing us of her mission in India in sponsoring the establishment of schools, hostels, and supporting children who have no one to help them.

The short talk will highlight the need for our financial help to ensure that families can lead a dignified life in times of hardship.

The next session of the 2019/2020 RCIA process will be on Monday, 7 October, commencing at 7:30pm in the parish house. The topics for discussion will be the Sacraments, Baptism and Confirmation.

Anyone who is interested in becoming a full member of our parish community is invited to attend. For more information contact Chris deSilva (0459 236 110).

Good Neighbours Healing Mass

The next Healing Mass will be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday 9th October at 10am followed by morning tea.

For all enquiries or anyone requiring transport please contact/leave a message for Marie Perlini 9370 2070.

All are very welcome.

Our Lady's Candle Procession

On 12 October, after the Vigil 6.00pm Mass, we will have Our Lady's candle procession. I ask if you will donate white roses and candles to decorate Our Lady's float. The roses would need to be delivered to the parish before 10.00am on the day, and Benediction will follow the procession. Thank you for your help.

Pizza and Movie Night

The Pizza and Movie Night, for families with children in Yr 6 or older, will be held in the parish hall on 27 October after the 5pm Family Mass.

We'll be watching "How To Train your Dragon" (PG). BYO bean bags welcome. It is a free event, but you are asked to register on the sheet at the back of the church for catering purposes.

Plenary Council 2020

Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians—pray for us.

St Mary MacKillop—pray for us.

Parish Meetings next week...

Mon 7 Oct RCIA in parish house at 7.30pm

Tues 8 Oct SVDP in parish house at 6.30pm

Sat 12 Oct Discussion group in parish house at 4pm

Next weekend's readings (12/13 Oct) are for 28th
Sun Ord Time Year C

1st Reading: 2 Kings 5: 14-17

2nd Reading: 2 Timothy 2: 8-13

Gospel: Luke 17: 11-19

First Reading: Habakkuk 1: 2-3; 2: 2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help

while you will not listen;

to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear

and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me,

why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see,

all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down,

inscribe it on tablets

to be easily read,

since this vision is for its own time only:

eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;

if it comes slowly, wait,

for come it will, without fail.

See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,

but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 94: 1-2, 6-9

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.

Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. R.

2. Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us
for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. R.

3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' R.

Second Reading: 2 Paul 1: 6-8, 13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: 1 Peter 1: 25

Alleluia, alleluia! The word of the Lord stands for ever; it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 17: 5-19

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
