REFLECTION ... by Fr Michael Tate

(Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Don't you find yourself attracted to people who are a bit 'over the top'? In fact, one seeks them out rather than the apathetic, the bland or the lukewarm.

Zacchaeus was one of those 'over the top' characters, not only figuratively but, in the incident in the gospel, literally.

He was curious about Jesus of Nazareth and so desperately wanted to catch a glimpse of him that he climbed into the branches of the sycamore tree so that he could be above, over the top of, the crowd.

But Jesus had his eyes peeled for an 'over the top' character. He was on the lookout, and he looked up and saw Zacchaeus and invited himself to his home!

That is, the home of Zacchaeus, the home of a man whose name means 'clean'. He was 'Mr Clean'. But he was regarded as dirt by his fellow Jews, a filthy collaborator with the Romans, collecting their taxes. In fact, he was so contaminated by his association with them that many Jews regarded Jesus as putting himself in danger of contagion in going to the home of Zacchaeus.

But, Jesus knew his man. Zacchaeus had already reacted in an over the top way: 'So he made haste and came down and received him joyfully.' But there was to be more. The enthusiastic sightseer was being sought by an even more enthusiastic insight-seer.

Jesus of Nazareth was and is the Divine Seer into the heart.

TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

Fr Jeronimo and the Parish Council invite all volunteers in our parish to attend a 'thank you' function on Friday, 6 December.

Further details in next week's newsletter.

Pizza & Movie night social

Last Sunday, we welcomed 6 children and 6 adults for our first movie night. Some even came prepared with sleeping bags, cushions, beach chairs and bean bags! While it was a small group it was a happy group who gathered to just enjoy each others' company, a good movie and the requisite junk food. Keep an eye out for our next event, possibly before end of this year, as we'd like to provide more opportunities for youth focussed events in our parish community setting.

Thanks to Amy Neville and Chris deSilva who came up with the idea and made sure it went ahead. Special thanks to eagle eye bargain hunter Amy for getting us discounts on our pizzas!

RCIA

We will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens for our candidate, Elizabeth, at the Vigil Mass this Saturday. This marks her formal admission into the RCIA process.

The next session of the 2019 RCIA process will be on Monday, 4 November, commencing at 7.30pm in the parish house. The topics for discussion will be Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick.

Next weekend's readings (9/10 Nov) are for 32nd Sun Ord Time Year C

1st Reading: 2 Maccabees 7: 1-2, 9-14

2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2: 16—3:5

Gospel: Luke 20: 27-38

First Reading: Wisdom 11: 22—12: 2

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.

Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent.

Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.

And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you?

You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all.

Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 144: 1-2, 8-11, 13-14

R: I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

1. I will give you glory, O God my King,
I will bless your name for ever.
I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever. R.

2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures. R.

3. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

4. The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.
The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down. R.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1: 11- 2: 2

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 3: 16

Alleluia, alleluia! God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 19: 1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
