REFLECTION ... by Fr Michael Tate

(Taken from 'Pastoral Liturgy')

Our prayer can tell us a lot about the image of God we really have – holding a parking spot for us, or stopping rain on the second day of the Australian Open. But, if you were in Syria, your prayerful image of God would be as a Liberator from warfare, of a Saviour from Crimes against Humanity, of a Strengthener in time of torture and impending death.

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises his persecuted followers of every age, 'Your endurance will win your lives'. As Malachi prophesied: 'the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays'.

It is our faith that, out of the darkness of the tomb, the Son of righteousness did rise with healing in His rays, bathing the world with that light which makes the world habitable for human beings.

We could take a moment to pray for contemporary persecuted Christians that their faithful endurance will win their lives.

Mass Intentions

Feast Days this week....

Thurs 21 Nov—The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary—This feast was established in the West late in the Middle Ages and was universally observed by the sixteenth century. It celebrates Mary in her grace-filled life, wholly given over to the Holy Spirit from the time of her conception.

Fri 22 Nov—St Cecilia—Though a late fourth century church in Rome was named after her, nothing is known of her life or death. In the sixteenth century she was named the patron of music and is remembered in tradition as a virgin, martyred for the faith.

RCIA

After a couple of postponements, we celebrated the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens for our candidate, Elizabeth, at the 5pm Mass last Sunday.

This marked her formal admission into the RCIA process.

The next session of the 2019/2020 RCIA process will be on Monday 19 November, commencing at 7:30pm in the parish house. The topics for discussion will be the Church and the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

Anyone who would like more information about the RCIA should contact Chris deSilva (0459 236 110).

Catechism programme

Here at St Peter's parish we are lucky to have 3 catechists so we can offer each of the 3 Sacrament programmes. We would love to offer a fuller programme and also replace retiring catechists. Great support is offered at no cost to our volunteers through training and further education by the Archdiocesan Catechist team. Time commitment for this friendly team is one hour per week in terms 1 -3 only, plus some lesson preparation. If you are interested and would like to find out more, please email Chris Neville—stpetersstc@gmail.com

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 5: 1-3

2nd Reading: Colossians 1: 12-20

Gospel: Luke 23: 35-43

First Reading: Malachi 3: 19-20

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 97: 5-9

R: The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

1. Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. R.
2. Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples.
Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord. R.
3. For the Lord comes,
he comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness. R.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3: 7-12

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow.

We gave you a rule when we were with you: not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 21: 38

Alleluia, alleluia! Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 21: 5-19

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, 'All these things you are staring at now – the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.' And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said, 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?'

'Take care not to be deceived,' he said, 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name – and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
